JUDGMENT

Dated this the 11th day of September, 2023 This writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed seeking a relief from this Court for payment of outstanding interest amount of Rs.21,75,273/- vide recovery notices Exhibit P3.

2. Petitioner is a registered dealer under KSGST and CGST Act,

2017. Petitioner has not paid GST from 2017-2018 to 2020-21. Assessment proceedings under Section 73 of the GST Act were culminated in assessment orders Exhibit P1.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in pursuance to the assessment order, petitioner has paid the assessed tax and only penalty and interest are remained to be paid, for which recovery notices- Exhibit P3 has been issued.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is willing to deposit the amount demanded by the recovery notices, provided the petitioner is granted 24 months time to pay off the interest and penalty amount of Rs.21,75,273/-.

5. Learned Government Pleader submits that Section 80 of the CGST Act empowers the Commissioner of CGST, to grant instalments not exceeding 24 instalments subject to payment of interest under Section 50.

6. Learned Government Pleader thereto submits that the petitioner may approach the Commissioner, as the Commissioner has to take a decision for granting instalments to the petitioner for making payment of the outstanding dues demanded vide Exhibit P3.

7. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader.

8. Present writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Commissioner, State GST Department to allow the petitioner to deposit the due tax liability as demanded by Exhibit P3, in 24 instalments. Petitioner is directed to make an application within a period of ten days from today, before the Commissioner and the Commissioner should allow the said application in the light of provisions of Sections 80 and 50 of the GST Act, 2017. For a period of one month, recovery notices shall be kept in abeyance.

With the aforesaid direction this writ petition stands disposed of. Sd/- Dinesh Kumar Singh, Judge sou.
