The petitioner has filed this writ petition seeking issuance of Writ of Certiorarified Mandamus calling for the records relating to the order of the third respondent made in Na.Ka.No.710/2023/E2 dated 14.03.2025 and quash the same and direct the respondents to 2.According to the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner though they have got alternative remedy, since because the procedure had not been followed, they are entitled to file writ petition.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that they have not been furnished with enquiry report, which statement was strongly objected by the learned Additional Government Pleader and they also produced the explanation given by the delinquent on 14.03.2025 to the enquiry report which is referred to as reference no.12 in the impugned order. 4.In such view of the matter, this Court neither find violation of fundamental right nor the natural justice nor bias. As rightly contended by the learned Additional Government Pleader, as there is appeal remedy available to the petitioner, the writ petition is not maintainable.

5.The writ petition is dismissed. However, the petitioner is granted liberty to approach the appellate Authority within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On filing of such appeal, the appellate Authority is directed to dispose of the same upon its own merits and in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
