ORDER

Khan, J.

1. Appellant has contracted a second marriage sometime in 1993 and had also a son from this marriage in 1995. And yet he is contesting a decree of divorce obtained by respondent.

2. His appeal, therefore, represents a harassment proceeding. Even otherwise it is meritless because it is based on a reasoned judgment and there is hardly any scope for interference in the findings returned on appreciation of evidence. This appeal is, accordingly dismissed on preliminary hearing.
