Judgement :

1. The present Miscellaneous Application emerges from the Tribunal's Miscellaneous Order No. 8/89-A dated 24.1.1989 1989 (23) ECR 100 (Cegat SB-A). Shri K.S. Nanavati, the learned advocate, has appeared on behalf of the appellants with Shri K.M. Mehta, Advocate. He made a prayer for grant of necessary permission for withdrawal of the Miscellaneous application without prejudice to the appellants' right for challenging it before the proper appellate forum. Shri Chakrabarti, the learned SDR, who appeared on behalf of the Revenue does not object. After hearing both the sides, necessary permission for withdrawal of the Miscellaneous application is granted without prejudice to the appellants' right for challenging the Miscellaneous Order No. 8/89-A dated 24.1.1989 [1989 (23) ECR 100 (Cegat SB-A)] before the appellate forum or any other remedy available to the appellants in accordance with law. For statistical purposes the Miscellaneous Application is dismissed.
