Reported in : (1898)ILR21Mad430

Judge : Shephard Officiating, C.J.

Appellant : Queen-empress

Respondent : Ramalingam

Judgement :

1. There seems to me to be no doubt that the rules, though passed under the old Act, must be deemed to have been passed under the existing Act. The orders must be amended so as to make the detention last till the offender in each case has attained the age of eighteen.
