Court : Kolkata

Decided On : Jun-19-1899

Reported in : (1899)ILR26Cal764

Judge : Stanley, J.

Appellant : Stevenson

Respondent : Stevenson

Judgement :

Stanley, J.

1. Counsel on behalf of the petitioner states that he does not desire to cross-examine the respondent. The respondent has filed an affidavit in which he states that he is without any means whatever. The application must consequently be dismissed. I reserve the question of costs. The petitioner to have liberty, if such liberty be required, to renew the application at any future time.
