Seetal Singh Vs. Satwinder Singh and Others

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/953291

Court : Karnataka

Decided On : Jan-23-2013

Judge : N. Ananda

Appeal No. : Writ Petition No. 2224 of 2013 (GM-CPC)

Appellant : Seetal Singh

Respondent : Satwinder Singh and Others

Judgement :

1. The second defendant had sought for stay of the proceedings on the ground that plea of tenancy is pending consideration.
2. Heard the learned Counsel for parties.
3. The second defendant had made an application to the Assistant, Commissioner, Pandavapura, under Sections 80 and 83 of the Karnataka Land Reforms Act, 1961 somewhere in the month of November 2012.
4. It is needless to state that Form 7-A should have been filed within the extended period under the relevant, provisions of the Karnataka Land Reforms Act before the jurisdictional Tribunal. The defendant by filing the application before the Assistant Commissioner, Pandavapura in the month of November 2012 cannot contend that plea of tenancy is pending and the Trial Court should not proceed with the suit. Therefore there is no merit in the petition. The petition is accordingly dismissed.
